

Nothing in this presentation comes from original research. We have used web sources for all the information and some of those sources conflict. Treat all information with due caution. There is a book online, The Story of the Original Dixieland Jazz Band (Louisiana UP, 1960, by H. O. Brunn), available for reading at the Internet Archive website.

The March of Time Volume 3 Episode 7 featured the story of the ODJB.
